Yankee Doodle for "Yankee" Won the Futurity.

The Great Race Was Nobly Won Before a Crowd of Thirty Thousand People.

By Associated Press. New York, Aug. 31.-John E. Madden's Yankee won the classic Futurity at Sheepshead Bay, the richest fix- Lux Casta, 109 (Odon). 15 to 1, secture of the American turf. He won ond; Baron, 112 (Woods) 12 to 1,third. driving by a length and a half from Time, 1:09 1-5. what was perhaps the best and highest class field which ever ran for the stake.

Lux Casta was second, while Baron finished third. The great race was nobly won before a record breaking crowd of 20,000 people, who cheered the victor. The day was perfect and the track fast.

Three races were decided before the Futurity. As the stars of the twoyear-old world paraded past the stand on their way to the post there was great cheering. The betting ring was a seething mass of humanity. Layers were beseiged and it was almost impossible to fight one's way near enough to the layers to get a bet down. The rank and file could see nothing in the race but Whitney's entry, Nasturtium, and King Hanover, and the opening at 9 to 5 quickly played down to 7 to 5 and 13 to 10, Madden's horse, Yankee, and Gunfire were strong second choices at 4 to 1. but the feeling was not so strong for this combination when Blue Girl was scratched. Heno and Dereszek had a strong following at 10 to 1, while Barron, the much touted maiden, and Lux Casta ranged in price from 20 to 1 to 25 to 1, scattering bets being made on all of them. Goldsmith, Blue Girl and Carroll D, bad been scratched but Homestead, Broad Street and

Utopian were added also. A field of 19 cantered past the grand stand to the post. There were two false breaks when suddenly the welcome cry, "They're off," rang through the stand and seemed to electrify the crowd, everybody being on their feet. Saturday made the first show, with King Hanover, Hyphen, Yankee and Dresezek close on his

It was a good start for all but He no, who was practically left. They came down to the bend into the mair track like a line of cavalry. At that point Whitney's King Hanover was a short neck before Pentecost, Lux Casta, Yankee, Dereszek, Caghnawaga and Baron being well up and the most prominent of the others, and dashed past the one half mile post, it still being anybody's race. To everyone's surprise Nasturtium was way

Into the last furlong they came in a heart breaking dash for the wire King Hanover gradually dropped back and Odon sent Lux Casta to the front, closely followed by Pentecost,

Yankee, Dereszek and Barron. "Lux Casta wins," shrieked the crowd, but O'Connor drew the whip on Yankee and the colt responding quickened its stride and crept up on the flying leader. Odon was hard at owrk on Lux Casta, but Yankee, with long even strides, would not be denied. A hundred yards from the wire the two were head and head. Lux Casta hung on gamely and for a few strides neither could claim advantage. It was a stirring struggle, the monster crowd cheering and shouting. Then Yankee drew away and passed under the wire a length and a half in front of Lux Casta, an easy second, and Barron, closing with a ush, carned third money by a head from Dereszek. Then came Penteost, King Hanover, Gunfire and others. Nasturtium being tenth and far 81 . W 14.

Then came the usual scene. The and played Yankee Doodle, the crowd nailed the winner and his jockey and O'Connor took his place in a floral iorseshoe.

The stake is worth $36,910 to the winner; second horse, $4,166.66; third norse, $2,083.34. Two thousand dolars to the breeder of the winner; 31,250 to the breeder of the second horse and $500 to the breeder of the third horse, Total, $46,910. Featherctone, whose jockey rode the winner, got 25 per cent of the winner's share for allowing O'Connor to ride. Wilfam C. Whitney also had some balm in the fact that he owns a half interest in winner. Those at the start say that Nasturtium was off well, but jumped at a dark spot in the track, losing time and being shut out.

O'Connor rode three winners in ogden, Yankee and Knapsack. The other races were interesting and well contested.

The Theatre.

It will seem good to listen to Kerker's Champagney music once again and watch the gorgeous gayety o Hugh Morton's "Belle of New York" at the Auditorium on Thursday, Sept. 5. The management has been complimented over having kept the piece up to a high standard. No doubt there will be considerable curiosity to see E. J. Connelly in the role of Ichabod Bronson, President of the Young Men's Rescue League and An-ti-Cigarette Society of Cochoes. Mr. Connelly has established himself as degitimate comedian by his admirable work as Joel Gates in "Shore Acres," and he has also given a taste of his farcial ability as old Molineux in "Hotel Topsy Turvey," but Bronson being so far away from his previous work will be looked forward to with much interest. The part of Violet much interest. The part of Violet Gray, the Salvation Army lassie, is being played this season by Miss Beulah Dodge, who is making a decided impression in the part. Quite a number of the London company are still with the "Belle of New York" as well as a beautiful and shapely chorus. The costumes and scenery are all new and "The Belle of New York" this season is bigger and brighter than ever. Seats on sale at Beagle & Lytle's drug store, Tuesday morning. M. G. SEIPEL, Mgr.
